

NINE DAYS OF HARD LABOR

AND OUR WORK IS DONE.

A trainload of goods opened here and there. Come or send while the piles are high. Five rooms wouldn't hold 'em, so we rented the sixth. Three landlords from our tills are paid; still we are crowded, and cry for more. Business, business, nothing but business. Stacks of merchandise, fresh and crispy, will meet your gaze; but a pull from you and a pull from another will bring them down like snow from the mountains. Large blocks of goods, bought under price and sold under price, make our store the store of the people. Send for samples, and name this paper. Express charges to the amount of $5.00 and over prepaid by us, domestics excepted.
